

RABBIT BRONZE TEST STUDY GUIDE

Information may be obtained from articles in the “The Official Guide to Raising Better Rabbits and Cavies and the Standard of Perfection (2006-2010).” Both printed by American Rabbit Breeders Association and the 4-H Rabbit books, “What’s Hoppening, Making Tracks, All Ears, and Helpers Guide.”

1. At least 10 parts of the rabbit
2. Know basic information about a normal rabbit such as; temperature, heart rate, etc.
3. Know how to care for a rabbit in extreme weather
4. Know what to feed a rabbit
5. Know how to tell the sex of a rabbit
6. Know how to groom a rabbit
7. Know some information about different breeds
8. Know what a basic first aid kit might include
9. Know information on rabbit gestation
10. Know how to carry a rabbit
11. Know about rabbit I.D.
12. Know what American Rabbit Breeders association is.
13. Know ARBA rabbit showmanship score sheet.
14. Know body type groups of rabbits.

RABBIT SILVER MEDAL TEST STUDY GUIDE

This test consists of 15 fill in the blank questions.

The information for this test may be obtained from “The Official Guide to Raising Better Rabbits and Cavies” and “The Standard of Perfection(2006-2010)” ,both published by the American Rabbit Breeders Association.

1. Be familiar with the ARBA showmanship score sheet
2. Know common diseases and their treatment
3. Know about breeding rabbits, preparing for birth, and caring for kits.
4. Know common disqualifications of rabbits in show competition.
5. Know breeds of rabbits.
6. Know rabbit body types.
7. Know what a grand champion leg is and how to earn it.
8. Know information about a rabbits teeth.
9. Know glossary of Standard of Perfection.
10. Know breeds eligible to compete in commercial fur class.

RABBIT GOLD TEST STUDY GUIDE

This test consists of 15 fill in the blank questions.

The information contained in this test may be found in The Official Guide To Raising Better Rabbits and Cavies and The Standard of Perfection(2006-2010), both published by the American Rabbit Breeders Association.

1. Know rabbit diseases and their treatments.
2. Know eye colors.
3. Know the differences in fur types.
4. Know the different ways to win a grand champion leg.
5. Be able to describe a meat pen.
6. Know the difference between 6 class and 4 class.
7. Know terminology from the standard of perfection.
8. Be familiar with the ARBA rabbit showmanship score sheet.
9. Know how many breeds are recognized by the ARBA.